The East London Bhakti Vriksha - ISKCON London Newsletter

June - July 2026 (Inaugural Edition)

Jagannāthah swāmī nayana-patha-gāmī bhavatu me

Dedication to Srila Bhaktivinoda Thakur (1838–1914)

With the blessings of Sri Sri Gaura-Nitai and HDG A.C. Bhaktivedanta Swami Srila Prabhupada, we joyfully present the inaugural edition of Voice of East London Bhakti Vriskha (ELBV). Inspired by Srila Bhaktivinoda Thakura's pioneering Sajjana Toṣaṇī launched in 1881, Voice of ELBV aims to connect, inspire, and unite our growing community across East London and Essex, by sharing devotional stories.

Marking his sacred disappearance month, we humbly dedicate this first edition to the lotus feet of Srila Bhaktivinoda Thakura. May Gaura Vani uplift souls, preserve our shared memories, and deepen our devotion to Sri Sri Guru and Gauranga.

❀ "To serve a devotee, to chant the holy name ... to worship the Deity ... are the first out of sixty-four devotional activities for making progress in devotional service."

— His Divine Grace A.C. Bhaktivedanta Swami Śrīla Prabhupāda

Divine Guidance by Śrī Caitanya Mahāprabhu

Written by Yogeshvara Gopinath das

🌱 "I am the only gardener. How many places can I go? How many fruits can I pick and distribute?"

— Chaitanya Charitamrita Ādi Lila 9.34

Purport by Srila Prabhupada: Here Śrī Caitanya Mahāprabhu indicates that the distribution of the Hare Kṛṣṇa mahā-mantra should be performed by combined forces. Although He is the Supreme Personality of Godhead, He laments, "How can I act alone? How can I alone pick the fruit and distribute it all over the world?" This indicates that all classes of devotees should combine to distribute the Hare Kṛṣṇa mahā-mantra without consideration of the time, place or situation.

Jagannātha Swāmī Ratha Yatras

Written by Anuradha Acyutapriya devi dasi

Ratha Yatra is one of the most anticipated highlights of the Vaishnava calendar. In His infinite kindness, Lord Jagannātha leaves the altar to meet people where they are, bestowing His mercy on all. This June and July, our East London Bhakti Vriksha congregation brought this divine celebration across Essex—uplifting local communities through ecstatic kīrtana, book distribution, prasādam, and warm spiritual connection.

Chelmsford Ratha Yatra

On Sunday, 14 June 2026, over 1,200 attendees gathered for the second annual Chelmsford Ratha Yatra—marking a historic first as the sacred chariot processed along Chelmsford High Street!

The festivities began with a traditional coconut breaking ceremony led by the Mayor of Chelmsford and MP Marie Goldman. Devotees and local residents danced through the streets to vibrant kīrtana, followed by stage performances, henna, mantra meditation, and Vedic book distribution.

In the spirit of harmony, free prasādam meals and refreshing Nannari juice were served to 1,200 visitors, leaving the city united in joy and gratitude.

Southend Ratha Yatra

On Sunday, 12 July 2026, over 1,200 attendees gathered for the 3rd Southend Ratha Yatra. The procession launched from Victoria Circus with ceremonial coconut breaking and road sweeping by MP David Burton-Sampson, ISKCON London Temple President HG Dayal Mora Dasa, HG Parasuram Dasa, and HG Tribhangananda Dasa.

Devotees danced down to Royal Square, where High Street transformed into a vibrant cultural hub featuring face painting, book stalls, kīrtana yoga, and magic shows. Thanks to support from Southend Council and weeks of preparation, the community served 1,200 plates of free prasādam to local visitors.

Colchester Ratha Yatra

The third Colchester Ratha Yatra processed through town as part of the Colchester Carnival. Thousands lined the route from Sir Isaac's Walk to Lower Castle Park to witness the magnificent chariot brought by HG Tribhangananda Prabhu.

The festivities featured vibrant kīrtana, traditional dance, and a stage drama by Colchester Bhakti Vriksha devotees. Youth volunteers successfully ran a drinks stall, nearly 300 prasādam meals were distributed, and many local visitors expressed keen interest in joining regular classes.

Gopal Kids School Events

Planting the Seeds of Bhakti in Young Hearts (written by Priyatama Madhavi devi dasi)

June–July Highlights

- Age Group: Up to 12 years
- Ramayana Series: 5-part online journey discovering virtues of courage & devotion.
- Purushottama Series: Memorised Bhagavad Gita Chapter 15 slokas & earned certificates!
- Toddler Sangha: Hands-on slokas, crafts, yoga, and a sweet Panihati offering.

What Our Parents Say

"Vihaan thoroughly enjoyed the session and hasn't stopped talking about it! He is already excited for next week."

— Vandana Mataji

"Iraaj feels so encouraged to do good things, especially helping us after learning and chanting."

— Ratika Mataji

"Hridhaan found the class very informative and is looking forward to the next session."

— Pritesh Prabhu

➔ Register Your Children!

Nurturing Children Aged 4 -11 Years

Launched earlier this year, Gopal Kids School has quickly grown into a vibrant space where children learn to know, love, and serve the Lord. Over the past few months, the school hosted two engaging online Sunday series: the Ramayana Series (March–April), exploring virtues through Lord Rama's pastimes, and Purushottama Series (June–July 2026), where children memorised Chapter 15 slokas of the Bhagavad-gītā and earned achievement certificates.

Toddlers Sangha: Devotion Has No Age Limit

For our youngest community members, the new Toddlers Sangha offers hands-on gatherings with slokas, Krishna-katha, crafts, and yoga. A highlight was their Panihati Festival offering, where toddlers lovingly prepared offerings for Lord Krishna—a sweet first taste of devotional service. Heartfelt gratitude to Their Lordships, teachers, and parents for inspiring our entire congregation!

Pandava Sena - Teens and Youth Highlights

Written by Kharanshu Senapati and Shruti Sharma

Historic First ELBV Kīrtana Mela on 26th July

Colchester hosted its inaugural session in July 2026 with 12 Western attendees who loved the program and plan to attend regularly. The Colchester team is very inspiring under the guidance of Sādhvī Mataji!

Heartfelt appreciation to the creative Colchester team serving under the guidance of Sādhvī Gaurāṅgī Mātāji!

Purushottama Month Outreach and Devotional Services

Written by BhaskaraVamsa Rama das

Deepening Devotion Across East London

Although observed only once every three years, this sacred Purushottama Month inspired the ELBV Congregation to deepen their connection with Lord Sri Krishna through increased chanting, scriptural study, and book distribution.

Across East London and Essex, local Bhakti Vrikshas enthusiastically organized home programs, harināma, and outreach initiatives that welcomed thousands of participants.

Giriraj Bhakti Vriksha led by example, reaching 1,393 people and distributing 152 books.

🌸 These figures represent transformed hearts, meaningful conversations, and the collective effort of devotees sharing Lord Krishna's mercy. May we carry this momentum into our daily sādhana and share Lord Chaitanya's mission!

Purushottama Month Impact

- 318 Devotional Programmes Hosted
- 6,853 Souls Reached
- 757 Books Distributed
- 268 New Contacts Collected

ELBV Monthly Sankirtan Festival (MSF) Highlights

Written by Ranjan Nimai das

 "There is no doubt about it, to distribute books is our foremost duty. If you sell one book, that means you go one step forward in your spiritual life."

— HDG A.C. Bhaktivedanta Swami Śrīla Prabhupāda

Every book placed in someone's hands carries the mercy of Śrīla Prabhupāda and has the potential to transform a life.

Each month, devotees gather in joyful service to share Śrīla Prabhupāda's books and the wisdom of Kṛṣṇa consciousness. Every book distributed and every meaningful conversation plants a sacred seed of devotion in someone's heart.

Launch Event: 10th September 2026 — Featuring special guest HG Parasurama Prabhu!

Sadhana Corner: These books are the basis

Written by Anuradha Acyutapriya devi dasi

"These books are the basis."

— His Divine Grace A.C. Bhaktivedanta Swami Śrīla Prabhupāda

Our daily sādhana is nourished not only by chanting the Holy Name but also by regularly hearing transcendental knowledge. Every time we open one of Śrīla Prabhupāda's books, we receive the association of a pure devotee and strengthen our relationship with Krishna.

Whether it is a single verse from Bhagavad-gītā, a page from Śrīmad-Bhāgavatam, or a passage from Śrī Caitanya-caritāmṛta, consistent reading transforms our understanding into conviction, and our conviction into action. Just 15 minutes of daily reading can deepen your faith, inspire your service, and equip you to share Krishna consciousness with others.

THIS MONTH'S SĀDHANA CHALLENGE

READ: 15 minutes from one of Śrīla Prabhupāda's books every day.

REFLECT: Focus on one instruction and apply it in your life.

SHARE: Pass along one inspiring point to your family, friend, or BV.

"Read these books very carefully, and everything will be clear." — Śrīla Prabhupāda

Summer Special Recipe: Cooling Sattvik Chana Chaat Salad

Written by Ujjvala Lakshmipriya devi dasi

Ingredients

- 2 cups cooked chickpeas (white/brown)
- 1 large cucumber, diced
- 2 medium tomatoes, deseeded & diced
- ½ cup grated carrot
- ½ cup raw green mango, finely chopped
- ¼ cup fresh coriander, chopped
- ¼ cup pomegranate seeds (optional)
- 2 tbsp fresh grated coconut (optional)

Sattvik Summer Dressing

- Juice of ½–1 lemon (to taste)
- 1 tsp roasted cumin powder
- ¼ tsp freshly ground black pepper
- Pink Himalayan salt or rock salt, to taste

Sattvik Summer Benefits

 Raw Green Mango: Cools the body, rich in Vitamin C, and restores electrolytes lost in summer heat.

 Cucumber & Tomatoes: Provide deep hydration and natural cooling properties.

 Cumin & Coriander: Support gentle digestion, prevent bloating, and balance pitta.

 Chickpeas: Packed with plant protein and fiber for long-lasting energy.

Method

1. Combine Base: In a large bowl, add the cooked chickpeas, cucumber, tomatoes, carrot, green mango, coriander, pomegranate seeds, and grated coconut.
 2. Dress & Toss: Whisk the lemon juice, roasted cumin, black pepper, and pink salt together. Pour over the salad and toss gently to coat evenly.
 3. Infuse Flavors: Allow the chaat to rest for 5–10 minutes so the ingredients absorb the refreshing dressing.
 4. Garnish & Serve: Top with extra fresh coriander and coconut before serving chilled or at room temperature.
-  Devotional Note: Offer to Lord Krishna with love and gratitude before serving to your family and guests!

🎉 Congratulations, Samyukhthaa and Family!

We congratulate Samyukhthaa for receiving the prestigious Jack Petchey Achievement Award at the Brentwood Council level for outstanding character and school volunteering! Samyukhthaa's spirit of service shines across our ELBV community as well:

- Community Sevā: Served as Gītā Gyan admin, facilitates Toddler Sangha, and helped paint Kīrtana Melā stage decor with her sister Anushka.
- Inspirational Family: Her parents, Tamohara Prabhu and Maladharini Mathaji, along with Hanushkha (Pandava Sena rep for the dham), host monthly home kīrtanas in Brentwood, engaging the whole family in devotional service.

★ Thank you, Samyukhthaa & family, for leading by example!

📖 The Saṅkīrtana Star: Manorakṣi Rukmini Mataji

Warm appreciation to Manorākṣi Rukmīṇī Mātājī for organizing the Monthly Saṅkīrtana Festival (MSF) on Ilford High Road and inspiring her group to distribute Śrīla Prabhupāda's books! Under her leadership, Centreway and other BV groups helped our community successfully welcome many new individuals and families.

🍌 High Street Goodwill: In a sweet moment, a local mango seller gratefully gifted fresh mangoes to celebrate the books distribution.

🌸 Exemplary Sevā: Jākṣu Mātājī

Deepest gratitude to Jākṣu Mātājī for her extraordinary dedication to Bhakti Vriksha. Even while caring for her husband during his major surgery and extended hospital stay, her steadfast commitment to cooking, hosting, and serving devotees remains a powerful example for our community. Our prayers are with her for her husband's full and speedy recovery!

📖 Bhāgavatam Sevā: Āratī Mātājī

Hearty congratulations to Āratī Mātājī for surpassing her target for the Bhadra Purnīma campaign! Through her tireless door-to-door outreach and inspiring distribution drives, she successfully fulfilled our sankalpa to share Śrīmad-Bhāgavatam across the community.

🌸 Sankirtana Warrior of the Month: HG Kusuma Mathaji

We are delighted to honour HG Kusuma Modadharani devi dasi! With boundless enthusiasm, Mataji single-handedly inspired 5 Srīmad-Bhagavatam sets to find homes. She never misses an opportunity to go on Sankirtana—whether at local programs, festivals, or nearby temples. Her spirit of "Any opportunity to serve, I am ready!" is a true inspiration to our entire community. May Śrīla Prabhupada be ever pleased with her sincere seva!
